Activity Book

This Activity Book contains activity pages that accompany many of the lessons from the Teacher Guide for Unit 3. The activity pages are organized and numbered according to the lesson number and the order in which they are used within the lesson. For example, if there are two activity pages for Lesson 4, the first will be numbered 4.1 and the second 4.2. The activity pages in this book do not always include written instructions for students because the instructions would have words that are not decodable. Teachers will explain these activity pages to the students orally, using the instructions in the Teacher Guide. The Activity Book is a student component, which means each student should have an Activity Book.

Dear Family Member,

Today we started Unit 3 of English Language Arts. Starting with this unit, your student will receive a new list of spelling words each Monday. The purpose of having weekly spelling words is to help students become strong spellers and allow them to practice at home the skills they have learned. Your student will receive the spelling words at the beginning of the week and will be tested on the words at the end of the week.

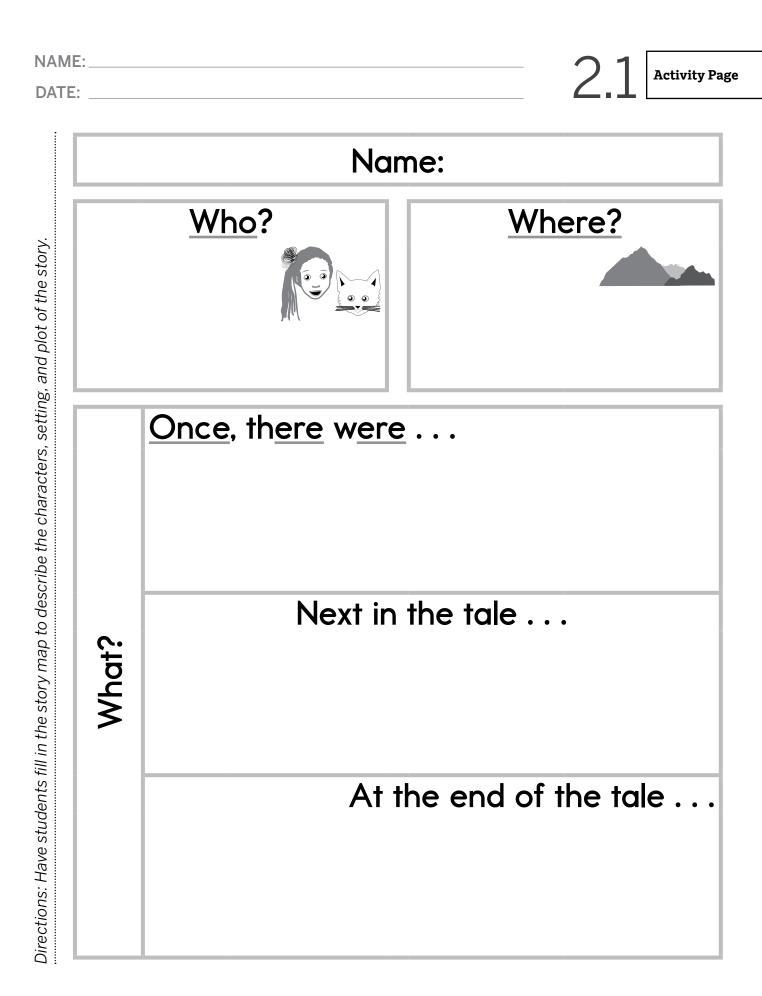

There are eight words each week. The words cover only the spellings that have been reviewed and taught in class, meaning that your student will only work with and be tested on familiar spellings. The last spelling word is shaded in gray to indicate it is a Tricky Word. Tricky Words do not follow the expected spelling rules, so they cannot be reliably sounded out and spelled, which means their spellings must be memorized. Tricky Words are also taught and reviewed in class.

I encourage you to work with your student each night to review the spelling words for 5–10 minutes. The activities can be fun but should involve having your student write the word, not just spelling it aloud.

Here are a few activity ideas:

- Say a sentence with the spelling word, but leave the spelling word out. Your student should guess which of the week's spelling words should complete the sentence and then write the word down.
- Create spelling word flash cards. After reading the word on a flash card, your student can turn over the card and write the word from memory on another piece of paper.
- Have a spelling bee at home, asking your student to both spell the words to you orally and write them.
- Ask your student to write each word in a short sentence, or write a story with the words.
- If possible, act out or draw a picture of the words; have your student guess the word and then write it down.
- Please have your student practice spelling the words in a different order each night; do not simply call them out in the order listed.
- Starting later this week, your student will also bring home a story that we have read in class. The story for this week is called "King Log and King Crane." Please have your student read the story to you and then talk about it together.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Family Member,

This is a story your student has probably read once, possibly several times at school. Encourage your student to read the story to you and then talk about it together. Note that the tricky parts in Tricky Words are underlined.

Repeated reading is an important way to improve reading. It can be fun for your student to repeatedly read this story to a friend, relative, or even a pet.

The Two Dogs

Once two dogs met. One of them was a tame dog who made his home with men. One was a dog who ran free.

The dog who ran free stared at the tame dog and said, "Why is it that you are so plump and I am so thin?"

"Well," said the tame dog, "I am plump becau se the men feed me. I do not have to run all the time to get my food. My job is to keep the home safe when the men are in their beds.

When they wake up, they feed me scraps of food from their plates."

"Your life must be a fine life," said the thin dog. "I wish my life were like yours."

The plump dog said, "If you will help me keep the home safe, I bet the men will feed you, too."

"I will do it!" said the thin dog.

But just as the thin dog said this, the moon shone on the neck of the plump dog.

The thin dog said, "What is that on your neck?"

"I am on a rope when the sun is up," said the plump dog.

"Rope?" said the thin dog. "Do they keep you on a rope?"

"Yes," said the plump dog. "When the moon is up, the men let me free, but when the sun shines, they keep me on a rope. I can not run and be free when the sun is up, but it is not so bad."

"No, no!" said the thin dog, as he ran off. "I will not have a rope on my neck. You can be plump. I will be free!"

Take-Home

Dear Family Member,

This week during our language arts time, we will continue to explore the writing process with students. We are teaching students to plan, draft, and edit written compositions before creating a final product. Ask your student to explain the process to you.

We will also continue to read stories from the reader Fables. Your student can explain the different morals from the stories we read in class.

Included below are the spelling words for this week. Remember to encourage your student to practice these words each night in order to be prepared for the test at the end of the week.

Dear Family Member:

Your student has been taught to read words with the vowel sounds  $/\underline{oo}/$  as in soon and /oo/ as in look. Reading words like these is tricky because the two vowel sounds are spelled with the exact same spelling, 'oo,' but pronounced differently. Ask your student to cut out the word cards. Show the cards to your student and have your student read them. You may also ask your student to copy the words onto a sheet of paper. Your student can sort the word cards into two piles: one pile for words with  $/\underline{oo}/$  as in soon and one pile for words with /oo/ as in look. Please keep and use the cards for future practice.

The Hares and the Frogs

Three hares stood in the grass.

"I am sad," one of them said. "I wish we were brave."

"So do I," said the next one. "But we are not brave. A splash in the brook scares us. The wind in the grass scares us. We are scared all the time."

"Yes," said the last one. "It is sad to be a hare."

Just then there was a splash in the brook. The splash scared the hares. They ran off to hide. As they ran, they scared a bunch of frogs.

"Look," said one of the hares. "The frogs are scared of us!"

"Yes, they are!" said the next hare. "They are scared of us! Well, I'm glad I am not a frog!"

"Yes!" said the last hare. "In the end, it is good to be a hare!"

Your student has been taught to read words with the vowel spellings 'oo' as in spoon, 'oo' as in book, 'ou' as in cloud, and 'oi' as in boil. Ask your student to cut out the word cards. Show the cards to your student and have your student read them. Then have your student read the word cards from previous take-home activity pages. You may ask your student to copy the words onto a sheet of paper. In addition, you can read the words aloud and have your student write the words down, one sound at a time, paying attention to the digraphs. Please keep the cards for future practice.

Dear Family Member:

For Unit 3 of our English Language Arts program, your student has been taught to read the Tricky Words should, could, would, because, and down. Tricky Words are hard to read because they contain parts that are not pronounced the way one would expect. For this reason, students must memorize the word.

Have your student read the Tricky Words in the box and then the sentences below. Note that the tricky parts are underlined. Have your student write the matching Tricky Word for each sentence and write it on the line. Please note that there could be different answers for the sentences. Ask your student to read the completed sentence out loud, and ask if it makes sense. You may ask your student if there is another word that could fit in the sentence as well.

The dog woke up, but he would not get off the food box. He was mad that the ox woke him up.

At last, a man came in and saw the dog on the food box.

The fox said, "Those grapes look good. I will get them and make them my lunch."

The fox stood up on his back legs, but he could not grab the grapes.

The fox made a hop, but he could not grab the grapes.

The fox ran and made a big jump, but he still could not get the grapes.

At last, the fox sat down on the ground.

"What a fool I am!" said the fox. "I can tell that those grapes are sour. They would not have made a good lunch."

The Fox and the Hen

A hen sat in a tree. A red fox ran up to the tree.

"Did they tell you?" said the fox.

"Tell me what?" said the hen.

"They have made a law," said the fox. The law says that we must all be pals. Dogs are not to chase cats. They must be pals. Cats are not to chase rats. They must be pals. Dog and cat, fox and hen, snake and rat must all be pals! So jump down here and let me hug you!" "Well, that sounds swell!" said the hen. "But, all the same, I will sit up here a bit."

Then the hen said, "What's that I see?"

"Where?" said the fox. "What is it?"

"It looks like a pack of dogs," said the hen.

"Dogs!" said the fox. "Then I must get out of here!"

"Stop!" said the hen. "The law says that dog and fox must be pals. So you are safe!"

But the fox did not stop. He ran off.

The hen just smiled.

The Fox and the Crane

The fox saw the crane and said, "Crane, will you have lunch with me?"

The crane said, "I will."

The crane came and sat down with the fox in his den.

The fox was up to a trick. He gave the crane some food, but he gave it to him in a flat stone dish. The crane could not get the food because of the shape of his bill. The fox smiled at his trick. He ate up all of his food.

The next week the crane saw the fox and said, "Fox, will you have lunch with me?"

The fox said, "That would be good. I will."

This time the crane was up to a trick. He gave the fox milk, but he gave it to him in a glass with a long, thin neck. The fox could not get the milk because of the shape of his nose.
